Prisoner Not Loose Long

But Officer Injured in Dive Atop Fugitive

A Federal prisoner's vain attempt to escape as he was being taken to a courtroom for trial on the Postoffice third floor Tuesday resulted in an ankle injury for a deputy marshal.

Raymond G. Griffin, 33, who is charged with Mann Act violation, made a dash down the stairway at about 9:05 a. m.

Deputy Earl Sweeney, Lincoln, dove after Griffin and fell on top of him at the landing. Mr. Sweeney's ankle was hurt, possibly broken, in the fall.

Raab Runs

United States Marshal William Raab, who was with Mr. Sweeney, ran down the stairs.

Griffin, who has been in prison many decades, once escaped from London and even then for a class was manufactured in 1957 that window didn't have glass in them. It was the middle of the sixteenth century up until the

Re: U. S. vs. Raymond G. Griffin
Cr. 0484

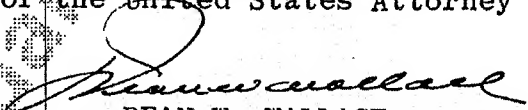

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that on February 24, 1960, the Federal Grand Jury returned an indictment against the above-named defendant charging him with transporting a certain girl and a certain woman in interstate commerce for the purpose of prostitution and debauchery, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2421.

The case came on for trial on March 21, 1960. The case was submitted to the jury Tuesday afternoon, March 22, and a verdict of guilty was returned on that date.

Very truly yours,

For the United States Attorney

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL
Re: Raymond R. Griffin

Dear Jim:

As you request, we have placed Mr. Griffin on the Confidential File. I am enclosing a confidential record sheet so that you may provide us with a description.

The years have a habit of clouding situations and for the guidance of those who may sit in this chair in years to come, we would like to have a little more information about his recent arrest and conviction on a moral charge. If you can secure statements from victims, these are most helpful. You can assure those making statements that they are made a permanent part of the record, kept under lock and key, and are never used or quoted. If statements are impossible, a narrative statement from you of events leading up to this action will be helpful.

Sincerely yours,
